6:30pm  Selma @ Cornell Cinema with GRF JC • Meet in Cook Lobby
Sign up at the House Office. Free for Cook residents. Movie starts at 7:00pm. As relevant now as it was fifty years ago, Martin Luther King, Jr.’s March on Selma demanded the ear of the President, and the eyes of the nation. Demanding more than a patronizing “we’ll get to this later” attitude from Washington, King thrust racial disparity into the headlines with his non-violent march for universal voting rights for all American citizens.

3:15pm  Sesquicentennial Celebration Exhibit with AC2 David & SA Krista • Meet in Cook Lobby
Been to the Rare Manuscript Collections? Interested in seeing a portfolio of Cornell’s awesome history? Join us for a one-time tour of Cornell's Sesquicentennial Exhibit! Meet AC2 David in the Cook Lobby at 3:15pm or SA Krista at 3:30pm in the lobby of the Rare Manuscript Library.

7:00pm  Cornell Fashion Collective 31st Annual Runway Show with GRF Anne • Meet in Cook Lobby
The Cornell Fashion Collective provides an outlet to express creativity in fashion and fashion management. Join us for a professional runway show featuring the talent of students who both design apparel and manage the operations of the show. Sign up at the House Office. $5 for Cook residents ($12 for Cornell community). Starts at 8:00pm in Barton Hall.

Saturday April 11

11:00am  Vet School Open House with Dr. E-K and GRF T.J. • Meet in the Cook Lobby
Join us for the Vet School's 49th annual open house. Careers in veterinary medicine have traditionally involved working with dogs, cats, cows, horses, sheep, and pigs. However, this rapidly growing field also provides opportunities to work in the animal health industry, government, armed forces and with many other species in zoos, wildlife refuges, and developing countries. Also see a horse run full speed on a treadmill!

4:00pm  How to Negotiate with Michele Williams • Cook Common Room
Learn how to assess your worth and advocate for yourself in negotiations with presenter Michele Williams, Assistant Professor of Organizational Behavior in the ILR school. Refreshments will be provided. Everyone welcome.
